GUIDELINES FOR RECERTIFICATION

- Recertification is required every five years to maintain active CCMA status.
- At least 60 credits are required. Credits must be relevant to the medical assisting profession and fall within the scope of practice as defined in the California Medical Assistant Regulations.
- Credits must be earned within the five years preceding application for recertification.
- Documentation for credits must include:
 - Name of program sponsor
 - Date Completed
 - Subject of Program
 - Amount of credits (hours/points)
 - Category (Basic, Administrative, Clinical)
- Credits earned prior to the original certification date or previous recertification date may not be used.
- Recertification may also be obtained by retesting. An application for Recertification by Exam can be obtain from our website at www.ccbma.org.

- Personal checks WILL NOT be accepted.
- Application fees for the CEU Method of Recertification are non-refundable.
- Failure to provide documentation upon request may result in failure to recertify and a forfeiture of application fees.
- Incomplete applications will be returned for completion.

RECERTIFICATION POLICY

All CCMA credentials must be recertified every five (5) years. Failure to do so within one year of expiration date will result in your being placed on a Non-Active Status list. This information is not confidential and may be released if requested.

Recertification by the Continuing Medical Education method is available for only one year after expiration of a current credential. Thereafter, recertification is available only by taking the examination at the current fee, providing you meet the current eligibility criteria as set forth by the Board.

Proof of current CPR certification is required.

CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDIT RECERTIFICATION POINTS

One contact hour one (1) point
(50-60 minutes of instruction)

One college semester unit 18 points

One college quarter unit 12 points

One continuing medical education unit .. one (1) point

Recertification points may be accumulated from various sources. Some examples are:

1. Seminars on medical topics within the scope of practice.
2. College courses that deal with medical assisting or appropriate medical topics.
3. Self-assessment tests from continuing education articles printed in each issue of the California Medical Assistant, the bi-monthly publication of the California Medical Assistants Association. Call 1-888-464-2622 for further information (toll-free).
4. Articles purchased from the California Certifying Board for Medical Assistants. Call 1-866-622-2262 (toll-free) for the current list of articles or go to the website at www.ccbma.org.
5. Authorship of different types of published materials.
 - a. CCBMA item writing:
Maximum of 45 points/five year distributed in 15 points/category
 - b. Textbook Chapter:
Maximum of 30 points/five years distributed in 10 points/category

APPLICATION REVIEW

Review of a properly completed application will take approximately 60-90 days.

When recertification is granted, you will receive a new wallet card and a seal which can be attached to your original certification. If you have misplaced your certificate, you may request a new one for a fee. Replacement pins are also available. Call the office for the current price listing of these items.

COMPLETING THE DOCUMENTATION SHEET

Type or print in ink all of the information on the Credit Documentation Sheet included with this application. You may photocopy the sheet as necessary.

Indicate your name on each sheet, and include your date of birth and certificate number.

Use a separate line for each activity.

Complete the date, program provider, program title, amount and type of credit earned for each activity.

Distribute your points in the areas earned (Basic, Administrative or Clinical).

Points can be used only once. For example, if you use 10 points for a college course in the Basic column, you cannot use these same points in Administrative or Clinical.

If you use more than one sheet, be sure to total ALL points on your last sheet.

All credits must be within the scope of practice for a California Medical Assistant. Acceptance of credits is determined by the Review Committee.

YOU MUST HAVE DOCUMENTATION TO SHOW THE CONTENT AREA, THE AMOUNT OF TIME INVOLVED AND/OR TYPE OF CREDIT EARNED, AND THE DATE OF COMPLETION.

Each Documentation Sheet is reviewed for appropriate categories as defined in the CCBMA Study Outline.

Do not send certificates of participation with this application form unless it is from a college course or a computer on-line course. Proof of your current CPR certification is required.

Random audits will be performed. Retain all documents until you have received notice of recertification.

If you are required to send credit documentation, be sure to send clear, unaltered copies of original transcripts or CEU certificates of participation.

Documents submitted will NOT be returned.
